MEET THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Jim Scarpace Executive Director

As Executive Director at Gateways Aurora center, Jim Scarpace prides himself on being accessible and adopting approaches that empower the adults and teens we treat to be successful in recovery. Jim joined Gateway Foundation in 2007 as a Program Director, overseeing the clinical management team at the Aurora treatment center.

Jim's main responsibilities include managing the residential and outpatient services for adults and adolescents in addition to ensuring continuous improvement of clinical practices. Jim also partners with local community groups to help make substance abuse treatment services as accessible as possible.

Viewed as an expert in his field, Jim also teaches graduate classes in clinical and forensic psychology as an Assistant Professor at The Chicago School of Professional Psychology. Jim earned his Master's degree in Clinical Psychology from Illinois Benedictine University in Lisle, IL.
