MEET THE PROFESSIONALS AT GATEWAY'S CHICAGO WEST CENTER

Enrio Rigolin, M.D., Board Certified Psychiatrist

Dr. Enrio Rigolin, a Board Certified Psychiatrist, enjoys being part of the team at Gateway Foundation because he is surrounded by serious, thoughtful and dedicated professionals. Dr. Rigolin brings more than 50 years of clinical experience to Gateway Foundation Chicago West. He provides psychiatric diagnostic evaluations and dual diagnosis treatment to those in treatment at the Chicago West Center.

Dr. Rigolin finds it gratifying to see patients achieve recovery. "I have had numerous gratifying experiences here at Gateway Foundation, such as observing patients who arrive disheartened and gradually transform into lively, joyful human beings."

Dr. Rigolin is also a Clinical Assistant Professor of Psychiatry at Northwestern Medical School in Chicago and a Distinguished Life Member of the American Psychiatric Association. He earned his Medical Degree from Escola Paulista de Medicina, Sao Paulo, Brazil in 1960. Dr. Rigolin is fluent in Spanish and Portuguese.

Paul Getzendanner, JD, LCSW, CADC, Program Director

Program Director Paul Getzendanner believes in evidence-based, individualized approaches to addiction treatment. "Treatment plans should respond to each person's unique needs and individuals should not be forced into a 'one-size-fits-all' treatment scheme," explains Paul.

Paul oversees treatment services for the Adult Outpatient Programs at Gateway Foundation Chicago West. He leads the day-to-day operations and staff while providing clinical guidance and support to the clinical professionals.

Paul received his M.S.W. from Loyola University Chicago School of Social Work, his Law Degree from Loyola University Chicago School of Law and his B.A. in Political Science from the University of Arizona in Tucson, AZ.
